

North American International Livestock Exposition

Show Information

This document is accurate as of October 30, 2020 and are subject to change.

UPDATE LOG

- October 30, 2020
 - Overnight in-building camping and light cooking is limited to only Dairy Cattle exhibitors. The limitation of in-building camping is due to the increased COVID-19 cases in the United States. Participants that are showing other livestock need to seek accommodations through neighboring hotel/motel and RV camping. Visit the OVERNIGHT IN-BUILDING CAMPING, RV PARKING & COOKING section for details on accommodations.
- October 1st, 2020
 - Tents with roofs are prohibited as they are a greater fire hazard.
 - Added clarity in the Pre-Arrival Information section regarding those driving through the state with positivity rates at or above 15%. We also provided information about refunds.
 - Added an Additional Questions section with questions and answers.
 - Updated the Show Schedule section to have the new deadline of October 10th with no late fees.

COVID-19 RESPONSE PLAN HIGHLIGHTS

- North American International Livestock Exposition has implemented a plan in response to COVID-19 to limit the spread of the virus. The COVID-19 plan includes but is not limited to these elements:
 - PARTICIPANT-ONLY SHOW - The North American International Livestock Exposition will close to the general public, allowing easier contact tracing and also provide the greatest reduction in the spread of COVID-19. Building Access Badges are required to enter the buildings and barn areas. Event Passes only allow you to enter the parking lot and exterior areas of the facility.
 - INCREASED HYGIENE ACCESSIBILITY - Hand sanitizer and handwashing stations will be available throughout the property.

- MASKS REQUIRED - Masks will be required to be worn by everyone on property. Especially when social distancing is not achievable. This applies for indoor and outdoor areas.
- SCHEDULE CHANGES - The 2020 North American Championship Rodeo and Country Store, and awards banquets associated with competitions have been cancelled. Saddle and Sirloin Club will be virtual this year. Additional Schedule changes have been made so please check the livestock and equine online schedules.
- WIDER AISLE WAYS - Aisles inside the facility will be widened and some identified as one-way aisles.

PRE-ARRIVAL INFORMATION

- Participants will not be allowed to enter the facility unless they can attest (with a written, signed document) that they have not been to a state that has a COVID-19 positivity rate equal to or greater than 15% 14 days prior to the date of their scheduled arrival time. Participants who are from a state equal to or greater than 15% 14 days prior to their scheduled arrival time that can attest to quarantining for 14 days will be allowed to participate in the show. This document will be sent to participants and also available at the check-in process.

We will utilize the updated numbers provided by John Hopkins University and Medicine (<https://coronavirus.jhu.edu/testing/testing-positivity>).

- Participants can drive through states that are at or greater than 15% and will be allowed to enter.
- Refunds will be given to exhibitors from states with a 15% positivity rate.
- Exhibitors who cannot attest via the sign waiver at check-in will have an option of being refunded.

GATE INFORMATION

- The Main Entrance (Gate 1) will be open throughout the show and is at the intersection of Freedom Way and Phillips Lane.
- The Kentucky Exposition Center is located at 937 Phillips Ln. Louisville Kent

CHECK-IN PROCESS

Before accessing the property, all participants must check-in at Lot V, adjacent to the Main Entrance (Gate 1). Check-in runs 24/7 November 2-17.

- There is a 3-step system to checking in this year. First, Animal health screenings will be conducted.
 - Please make sure you have all necessary papers showing proof of animal health.

- Second, Participants will be required to complete or provide their COVID-19 waiver affirming they are in good health. Contact information will be collected and a wristband will be given to all participants and helpers. You must keep this wristband on throughout the event. The wristband does NOT permit you inside the building. A building access badge is required to enter the building.
 - We collect contact information in order to perform necessary contact tracing. This is in compliance with Kentucky's Healthy at Work Initiative guidelines for our show.
- Third, You will then receive appropriate credentialing to access the property and building in the form of pre-purchased event passes and building access badges.
 - Event Passes are color coded and are scanned at the gate, covering the daily cost for parking and admission. Event passes do not allow you to access the building but so allow you to park and walk to outside areas around the facility.
 - Building Access Badges are color-coded and limited based on the head of livestock you are bringing to the show. They are associated with your barn registration. Building access badges must be worn by every person within the building. Without a building access badge, you are prohibited from entering the building and barn areas.
 - Small Animals (including: sheep, goat, swine)
 - Participants with 1-5 head of livestock will receive 3 badges.
 - Participants with 6-10 head of livestock will receive 4 badges.
 - Participants with 11-15 head of livestock will receive 5 badges.
 - Participants with 16+ head of livestock will receive 6 badges.
 - Large Animals (including: beef and dairy cattle)
 - Participants with 1-5 head of livestock will receive 3 badges.
 - Participants with 6-10 head of livestock will receive 5 badges.
 - Participants with 11-15 head of livestock will receive 7 badges.
 - Participants with 16+ head of livestock will receive 8 badges.
